

LOCKDOWN LANDSCAPES

MAPPING MEMORIES

WORKSHOP 3 RESOURCE PACK

This resource pack is aimed to support discussion and map making during the workshop. Feel free to show these digitally on a screen or as printouts; either black and white or in colour. You are also very welcome to use your own related images and sources. There are recommended points throughout the workshop plan where these resources could be introduced, but they can be used in any way that suits your group.

Warm-up Exercise Poems

I Wandered Lonely As A Cloud by William Wordsworth

I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host, of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

Continuous as the stars that shine
And twinkle on the milky way,
They stretched in never-ending line
Along the margin of a bay:
Ten thousand saw I at a glance,
Tossing their heads in sprightly dance.

The waves beside them danced; but they
Out-did the sparkling waves in glee:
A poet could not but be gay,
In such a jocund company:
I gazed—and gazed—but little thought
What wealth the show to me had brought:

For oft, when on my couch I lie
In vacant or in pensive mood,
They flash upon that inward eye
Which is the bliss of solitude;
And then my heart with pleasure fills,
And dances with the daffodils.

Lowedges by Helen Mort

And if those doors to other worlds exist
you'll find them here: Lowedges, where the city smooths its skirt down in the name of modesty, picks up its jacket, calls it a night. Here, bichon frises chase their tails all morning on the astroturf,
a biker lets go of his handlebars and doesn't fall,
a woman rolls the afternoon into a cigarette and smokes it silently. Forget the Cornish sea, the top of Nevis with its trapdoor light . . .
If you're to leave this world, you'll leave it here:
this salvaged Friday, shop lights dimmed. Look up – how easily the rain bisects the sky.

Conversation drawing starter questions

These can be handed out to members of the group to ask each other:

What place have you identified?

Who would you visit this place with or would you go on your own?

Can you describe what you can see on the walk in as much detail as possible, what sights and scenes would we be seeing?

If you had to describe this place in five words, what would they be?

Is there a particular landmark that is part of your walk? If not, assign one and why is it significant to you?

What is your favourite thing about this outdoor walk?

Does this walk remind you of a particular person or memory?

If you trace your footprints from a bird's eye view - what would it look like?

What connections do you have to this place? Has your personal connection changed since Lockdown?

What shapes and patterns can you see in your landscape?
